CONNECTICUT HISTORY

Volume 14 June 1974

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Current Research in Connecticut History 4

The Hartford Woolen Manufactory: The Story of a Failure (By Chester M. Destler) 8

Book Reviews

Estelle F. Feinstein, Stamford in the Gilded Age: The Political Life of a Connecticut Town, 1868-1893. (By Frederick M. Heath) 33

William E. Buckley, A New England Pattern: The History of Manchester, Connecticut. (By Glenn Weaver) ... 35

Kenneth Walter Cameron, The Letter-Book of the Rev. Henry Caner. (By Bruce E. Steiner) 38

Glenn Weaver, ed., The American Revolution Bicentennial Booklets. (By Oscar Zeichner) 40

Virginia Adams, Connecticut: The Story of Your State Government.(By Harriett Patterson) 48

Books Briefly Noted 49

New England Archivists Meeting 50

ASCH Spring Meeting 51

ASCH Fall Meeting 57

ASCH 1973-1974 Membership Dues Notice 57

New Manuscript Accessions at The Connecticut Historical Society 58

Connecticut History, formerly the Connecticut History Newsletter, is published in November and June with the cooperation of the Center for Connecticut Studies of Eastern Connecticut State College. The editors seek material on research projects in the field of Connecticut studies as well as scholarly articles. Articles should be submitted with footnotes and should be sent to: David M. Roth, Editor, Connecticut History, The Center for Connecticut Studies, Eastern Connecticut State College, Willimantic, Connecticut - 06226.