

CONNECTICUT HISTORY

Vol. 34, No. 2

Fall 1993

ARTICLES

- Richard Baber Vacant Lots and Broken Dreams: Urban Renewal in Willimantic, Connecticut 73
- Thomas M. Slopnick Mr Bowles Goes to Hartford: The Connecticut Campaign for Governor, 1948 91

NOTES AND DOCUMENTS

- Gloria P. Stewart The Road to the Poor House: How Norwalk Treated Its Poor, 1651-1849 123

REVIEWS

- William Apess. On Our Own Ground: The Complete Writings of William Apess, a Pequot.
Reviewed by Kerry Driscoll 130
- Thomas J. Farnham. Southern Connecticut State University: A Centennial History, 1893-1993.
James A. Frost. The Establishment of Connecticut State University, 1965-1985: Notes and Reminiscences.
Reviewed by James F. Lacey 133
- Donald R. Hoke. Ingenious Yankees: The Rise of the American System of Manufactures in the Private Sector.
Reviewed by Gail Fowler Mohanty 138

- Kathleen L. Housley. The Letter Kills But the Spirit Gives Life: The Smiths-Abolitionists, Suffragists, Bible Translators.
Reviewed by Ruth Barnes Moynihan 140
- Herbert F. Janick. Government for the People: The Leadership of the Progressive Party in Connecticut.
Reviewed by Emil Pocock 143
- Dorothy Ann Lipson and Douglas M. Arnold. The Public Records of the State of Connecticut: From May 1806 Through October 1807. Vol. XIII.
Douglas M. Arnold. The Public Records of the State of Connecticut: From May 1808 Through October 1809. Vol. XIV.
Douglas M. Arnold. The Public Records of the State of Connecticut: From May 1810 Through October 1811. Vol. XV.
Reviewed by Bruce P. Stark 146
- David B. Potts. Wesleyan University, 1831-1910: Collegiate Enterprise in New England.
Reviewed by Ronald Story 150
- Patricia Dunlavy Valenti. To Myself a Stranger: A Biography of Rose Hawthorne Lathrop.
Reviewed by Barbara E. Lacey 153